Composite Benefit Rates

Introduction

With the University 'going-live' with UC Path during Fiscal Year 2017-18, the way that HR and Payroll Services are handled will be significantly transformed from previous practices. One of the primary goals of UC Path is to streamline and standardize HR and Payroll processes for increased efficiency at the campus-level and consistency across other UC campuses.

One of the items being updated is how employee fringe benefits are assessed to internal, campus-based budgets and sponsored projects (fund awarded externally from agencies such as the National Science Foundation, National Institutes of Health, or U.S. Forest Service, for example). Specifically, the University will transition to a new costing methodology of assessing employee fringe benefits, which is called Composite Benefit Rates (or commonly referred to as CBRs).

To help ease this transition, the Costing & Policy Office has created this web-
